The fundamental objective of Southmoreland High School is, and ought to be, education for effective citizenship. We can survive only if our citizens are responsible persons who are able to think and act wisely in any given situation. I sincerely hope you continue your excellent progress toward this goal, and any others you might have.

As we approach graduation activities, a phrase by Winston Churchill seems particularly appropriate. He said, "This is not the end, this is not even the beginning of the end. This is just the end of the beginning." This is certainly true of your education, because this is a process which will continue throughout your entire lives.

During the time since I first became acquainted with you, I have come to recognize your many talents and abilities. I know of your many accomplishments and of the various honors you have earned. Each of you has every right to be especially proud. I want you to know that I share this pride with you.

Congratulations and best wishes!

Dr. Johnston

The Legend is meant to provide a history of the school year, but it should contain more than records, names, and statistics. Although no yearbook can give a complete picture of a year, it is our hope that this year's Legend will help us to retain a fraction of the moods, thoughts, and impressions of high school life.

FAREWELL

We are leaving.
You are staying behind.
Staying to endure and overcome the trials
which we have already surmounted.
For underclassmen, it is a time of ending to begin again.
For seniors, the end of
a way of life.
